DON'T BREAK THE BANK: BEST PRACTICES FOR AVOIDING COSTLY WORKERS' COMP CLAIMS

THURSDAY • APRIL 14 • 2022
1-2 P.M. EASTERN

Mitigating the exposure posed by a workers' compensation claim begins before an accident even occurs. Employers must be aware of their obligations under the Act and ensure certain procedures are in place to address and contain workers' compensation claims. Certain omissions on their part can often lead to high exposure scenarios and long-term claims with severe consequences.

This webinar will equip the viewer with vital information and necessary pre- and post-accident tools to manage, contain and often successfully dispose of otherwise costly claims.
