LOOKING FOR A NEW GIG?

INSURANCE AND LIABILITY ISSUES IN OUR NEW GIG ECONOMY

THURSDAY · JUNE 29 · 2023

1-2 P.M. EASTERN

Over the past decade, a number of technology companies have entered the public consciousness in order to answer the call for delivery services. From their early days to the peak of their usage during the COVID-19 pandemic, these companies have continued to grow in stature. This webinar is a primer on the various aspects of potential claims and lawsuits involving “gig economy” entities, the relevant terms and agreements associated with the work and a look at recent Georgia court decisions regarding such entities.
