NAVIGATING DEFAULT JUDGMENTS:

THE ROLE OF A CLAIMS REPRESENTATIVE
WHEN SEEKING TO OPEN DEFAULT

THURSDAY • AUG. 27 • 2020

1-2 P.M. EASTERN

PRESENTED BY ATTORNEYS:

STEVEN DEFRANK

LAUREN MEADOWS

A case can go into default for a variety of reasons. Fortunately, Georgia law provides a process for opening default under specific circumstances. A successful motion to open default requires a quick, collaborative effort on the part of the insured, claims representative and attorney.

This webinar will explore the legal standard for opening default under Georgia law and the claims representative's role in seeking to open default.
