

COVID CALAMITY: HOW COURTS AND LEGISLATURES ARE RESPONDING TO COVID-RELATED BUSINESS INTERRUPTION CLAIMS

WEDNESDAY • OCT. 28 • 2020
1-2 P.M. EASTERN

Attorneys Fred Ferrand and Kori Eskridge will review policy provisions applicable to COVID-19 business interruption claims and discuss how courts have historically ruled on these provisions, along with how courts are ruling on COVID-19 claims under the same provisions.

In addition, they will discuss legislative efforts to retroactively change policy provisions to provide coverage for COVID-19 business interruption claims and updates on the status of these efforts.
