

WEBINAR

WHY DOES IT ALWAYS FEEL LIKE SOMEBODY'S WATCHING ME?

SURVEILLANCE AND INVESTIGATIONS IN A DIGITAL AGE

OFFERS 1 GA ETHICS CREDIT
(PENDING APPROVAL)

WEDNESDAY • NOV. 4 • 2020
1-2 P.M. EASTERN

PRESENTED BY ATTORNEYS:

JEFF STINSON

DUSTIN
THOMPSON

With the rise of technology and a global pandemic, employers and insurers have an increased ability to monitor and investigate injured workers and their activities, while facing limits at the same time as many people are not “out and about” as they were pre-pandemic.

This webinar will provide tips and tricks for ethically investigating claims and injured workers’ activities, as well as discuss some of the obstacles and evidentiary hurdles in obtaining and presenting evidence.

CLICK HERE TO RSVP

swift/currie

Webinar offers 1 ethics CE credit (pending approval) for attendees registered with the GA DOI. Instructions to join the webinar will be emailed to registrants closer to the date of the program. Questions? Contact Sarah Pinto at 404.888.6245 or sarah.pinto@swiftcurrie.com.